

Energy Forum—Keeping the Lights On: A Challenge to the Eastern Shore

Program for the Evening

7:00 – 9:00 pm

Welcome and Format for the Evening — David Lovelady, President, Republican Council

Introductions

- Sponsoring organizations:
  - Mid-Shore League of Republican Women — Cathy Watts, President
  - Republican Women of Talbot County — Ruth Buescher, President
  - Republican Central Committee of Talbot County — Nicholas Panuzio, Chairman
  - Republican Council — David Lovelady, President

Keynote Address—Dr. Dan Ervin — Director of ShoreENERGY; Salisbury University

Five-minute Summary/Overview by each Panel Member

- Energy Forum Panel Members:
  - Dan Ervin, PhD — Director of ShoreENERGY; Salisbury University
  - George Hamilton — Energy Consultant
  - Bill Mitchell, P.E. — Manager of Transmission Services for Pepco Holdings, Inc
  - Michael Whatley — Vice President, Consumer Energy Alliance
  - Ken Schisler — Former Chairman, Maryland Public Service Commission; Senior Director of Regulatory Affairs for EnerNOC, Inc.

Wrap-up—Dr. Dan Ervin

Question and Answer Session

Adjournment

Note:

Please write your questions for the Panel on the cards provided and hand to a volunteer. They will consolidate similar questions for the convenience of the moderator.

Contact the sponsors or join our organizations at www.TalbotGOP.org, www.RepublicanCouncil.org, or www.MSLRW.org, or visit Central Committee Headquarters at 7 Federal Street, Easton (410-770-4747).

March 23, 2010